

29 Jan 1968

Monday

Dear Mr. McGuire,

Your son probably never wrote to you about me. I was his platoon leader for the time he was with me. He was probably the most well liked man in the platoon. He had a mature attitude and a sense of responsibility that I've found to be a very rare quality among the men I've had in my platoon. He was promoted to Sergeant and was made squad leader of the men in the 3rd squad. His squad was the best in the platoon because